

The Chinese Confucius Institute held their open day on 20.12.2017 it was attended by the Chinese Embassy, Chinese Chamber of Commerce and Industry, the University of Nairobi top officers, the Chinese business community in Kenya, the University of Nairobi students and the general public.

It was a one-day event where the NCIA The Chinese Confucius Institute held their open day on 20.12.2017 it was attended by the Chinese Embassy, Chinese Chamber of Commerce and Industry, the University of Nairobi top officers, the Chinese business community in Kenya, the University of Nairobi students and the general public.

It was a one-day event where the NCIA team was able to interact with all the visitors that came to the stand. We shared the arbitration and mediation clauses and created awareness about the Centre. Through the various interactions the Centre will now be signing a Memorandum of Understanding with the Kenya Chinese Chamber of Commerce with the objective of having the Chamber to direct all commercial disputes raised by Chinese business community handled through NCIA. Also to direct all Chinese business community to include the arbitration and mediation clause in their contracts.

team was able to interact with all the visitors that came to the stand. We shared the arbitration and mediation clauses and created awareness about the Centre. Through the