

CALL FOR COMMENTS ON THE PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE NAIROBI CENTRE FOR INTERNATIONAL (ARBITRATION) RULES, 2015

The Nairobi Centre for International Arbitration (NCIA) is established by the Nairobi Centre for International Arbitration Act, Act No. 26 of 2013. Its mandate is to promote, facilitate and encourage the conduct of international commercial arbitration. It also administers domestic and international arbitrations as well as alternative dispute resolution techniques such as mediation among other functions as set out in its establishing Act.

The current NCIA (Arbitration) Rules were enacted in 2015 and revised in 2019. In a bid to expand our services and in light of the change in economic times and clients' needs, the Centre wishes to amend the Rules to enhance efficiency in the administration of Arbitrations filed at the Centre.

The Centre therefore invites relevant stakeholders, members of the public and all interested parties, to provide comments, views, and input with justification(s) on the Proposed amendments, which will inform changes thereof.

The Proposed Amendments are available on the NCIA Website under the Arbitration Tab at: <https://ncia.or.ke/wp-content/uploads/2024/01/PROPOSED-AMENDMENTS-TO-THE-NCIA-ARBITRATION-RULES.pdf>

Written submissions should be submitted to the Centre using the template provided below. The Submissions should be received not later than 31st January 2024 through counsel@ncia.or.ke or through the following address:
